

UNSW US Foundation – Board of Directors

Mr Charles GRANT (Chair)
UNSW Alumnus, BCom, 1980
Chair, Australian Independent Schools (USA) Foundation

Charlie Grant graduated from UNSW with a BCom (Accounting and Finance) in 1980. He joined KPMG and qualified as a Chartered Accountant in 1983. Later that year, he moved to London and joined the First National Bank of Boston. In 1987, he was transferred to Boston and began a career in private equity, initially in the bank's LBO lending group and, shortly thereafter, at BancBoston Capital, the bank's private equity group.

In the early 1990's, he began focusing on the developing secondary market for private equity fund interests. He continued this investment strategy with BancBoston Capital until the end of 2002 when he joined Lexington Partners, one of the largest managers of secondary private equity funds.

Charlie retired from Lexington Partners in early 2022. Previously, he was a partner in the Boston office of Lexington Partners and primarily engaged in the origination and evaluation of secondary purchases of buyout, mezzanine, and venture capital fund interests.

He is a fellow of the Financial Securities Institute of Australia, is on the board of the American Australian Association and chairs the Australian Independent Schools (USA) Foundation.

Mrs Fiona Docherty
Vice President, External Engagement, UNSW

As Vice President, Fiona Docherty is responsible for UNSW's Division of External Engagement which supports UNSW's bold and ambitious 2025 strategy with communications, government relations, alumni engagement, and fundraising activities. Reporting directly to the Vice Chancellor, Fiona is a member of UNSW's Management Board and is accountable for 145 staff and for raising $650M in donations.

Fiona is a board member of UNSW Global (the university's education pathway provider), and over the last five years has sponsored major projects including: the Institute for Global Development, the Big Anxiety Festival, the Professional Women in Leadership program, UNSW's COVID response plan, as well as serving on external boards and steering groups including the Australia India

Institute and the Association of Pacific Rim Universities network. In 2019, she was named one of the Top 50 marketing leaders in Australia by CMO magazine for her sector-leading work. The work of the Division has also been recognised through major industry awards for events, social media, comms campaigns and for international partnership development.

Prior to UNSW, Fiona worked across the higher education, tourism and FMCG sectors in the UK in director roles advancing sales, marketing, and comms. One of her most formative leadership experiences was serving on the inaugural committee representing the tea trade in the UK, tasked with developing ethical sourcing standards to deal with systemic supply chain issues globally – standards that remain in place today. She is a proud alumna of the University of Glasgow, and a graduate of both the UK CAM Foundation and the Australian Institute of Company Directors.
